

JUDY DWYRE

Judy is a dedicated AMI guide and school leader of Allium Montessori School. She is committed to educational theories based in cognitive science research and passionate about authentic Montessori because it encompasses best practices in both teaching and learning. Judy has a B.A. in Neuroscience and M.A. in Teaching from Johns Hopkins University and her AMI elementary diploma and M.A. in Elementary Education from Washington Montessori Institute at Loyola University.

Judy is committed to high-quality education for all students. Her teaching career began in Baltimore Public Schools, where she taught pre-kindergarten and then in a public Montessori elementary school. At Allium, Judy continues her work of supporting whole child development through a pedagogy grounded in respect. Judy enjoys sharing her creative interests and talents with her students, such as woodworking, knitting, cooking, and inventing. Thus, sparking their passion and curiosity.
