

NICOLE BACAK

Nicole Bacak is a distinguished Montessori educator with an extensive career spanning over a decade. Her expertise and sought-after skills have garnered recognition from Montessori institutions across the United States. Holding an AMI Primary Diploma from the Washington Montessori Institute and a Master's in Education from Loyola University Maryland, Nicole's dedication to the Montessori philosophy is truly exemplary.

Nicole's devotion to family is a cornerstone of her life. She is a loving mother to two wonderful daughters who bring boundless joy and inspiration to her journey. As she nurtures young minds in the classroom, Nicole's own family remains a driving force, reminding her of the importance of fostering growth and creativity in every aspect of life.

Nicole's journey in education has been marked by notable achievements. Prior to her role at Sea Lavender Montessori, she worked as a Primary Lead Guide and Elementary Assistant Guide at Goodwater Montessori Public Charter School in Georgetown, Texas. Her commitment extended beyond work with children as she served as a Course Assistant at three prestigious AMI training centers nationwide. Nicole's influence has also reached fellow educators through engaging workshops on Montessori material-making and as a consultant for the Montessori Accreditation Council for Teacher Education (MACTE).

A true advocate for the Montessori movement, Nicole Bacak is fueled by a passionate mission to ensure accessible Montessori education for all. Her dedication, coupled with a wealth of experience, continues to shape the landscape of Montessori education, leaving an indelible impact on both students and fellow educators alike.
